subject: Invitation to AP-RubberPlas 2026, China | Asia-Pacific Rubber Industry Exhibition

Dear GAPKINDO team,

Greetings from the Shandong Rubber Industry Association, China.

On behalf of our association, we are pleased to extend a formal invitation to GAPKINDO and representatives from the Indonesian rubber industry to participate in the 23rd Asia-Pacific International Rubber Industry Exhibition (AP-RubberPlas 2026), to be held on July 8–11, 2026 in Qingdao, China.

AP-RubberPlas is the largest rubber industry exhibition in Northern China, covering the complete industry chain, including raw materials, additives, processing machinery, and finished rubber products. In 2026, the exhibition will cover 120,000 square meters and host over 2,000 exhibitors, bringing together manufacturers, suppliers, and buyers from China and the Asia-Pacific region.

For your reference, the 2025 Post-show Report is attached, providing an overview of the exhibition scale, exhibitor profile, and visitor statistics.

We would be pleased to offer support and assistance for Indonesian rubber industry delegations, including accommodations, coordination, on-site assistance, and business networking opportunities, should your association or member companies be interested in participating. Please feel free to contact us for further information or discussion.

We sincerely look forward to the possibility of welcoming an Indonesian rubber industry delegation to AP-RubberPlas 2026.

Yours sincerely,

Yaru Gong (Sunny)
